

Dr. Salim Yusuf, MD DPhil (Oxford) is Professor of Medicine (Cardiology) and Clinical Epidemiology & Biostatistics at McMaster University; Director of the Population Health Research Institute, McMaster University and Hamilton Health Sciences; and Vice-President of Research and Chief Scientific Officer, Hamilton Health Sciences.

As the director of the Population Health Research Institute, Dr. Salim Yusuf founded and has since proudly led the world renowned research institute in 1999. Dr. Yusuf was previously the Director of the Preventive Cardiology and Therapeutics Research Program at the Hamilton Civic Hospitals Research Centre founded in 1992 from which the PHRI evolved. Dr. Yusuf is currently a Professor of Medicine at McMaster University as well as the endowed Chair for Cardiovascular Research for the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Ontario. Dr. Yusuf was formerly the Director of Cardiology at the Hamilton Health Sciences. Dr. Yusuf now holds the titles of Chief Scientific Officer and the Vice-President of Research at Hamilton Health Sciences. Dr. Yusuf holds a highly distinguished medical degree from St. John's Medical College and a Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Oxford which he attended as a Rhodes Scholar. Dr. Yusuf's long list of awards and accomplishments include becoming a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada. Dr. Yusuf is also the recipient of the Prix Galien Research Award, the Louis and Artur Lucian Award for Research, the Paul Wood Silver Medal for Cardiology Research and the R.T. Hall Professorship for Cardiology. He has also published over 500 articles making him one of the top cited physicians in the world and the author of many citation classics.